

Over two decades ago we moved to Broom Mill Farm with the intentions of developing the farm. The end result of over 20 years hard work is a loyal customer base and a mouth-watering selection of traditional meat products second to none.

The whole ethos of Broom Mill Farm is to provide customers with traditionally prepared cuts of meat and meat products, second to none in taste and quality. All our produce has full trace ability, which means that we grow and produce our own animal feeds, and breed and rear our own livestock.

We can therefore very proudly inform our customers that we have complete confidence in the welfare, nutrition and quality of our stock and produce from start to finish. Striving to do things well, striving for perfection.
